

Interfaith Partnership/Faith Beyond Walls

Presents

An Educational Forum

Religion & American Politics: Then & Now

Thursday, April 3, 2008 - 7- 9:00pm

at

Eden Theological Seminary – Eden Commons

475 E. Lockwood Ave. – St. Louis, MO 63119

Keynote Speaker:

Rev. Dr. Warren E. Crews

Professor, Eden Theological Seminary; Episcopal Minister

Following the Keynote Address, members of an Interfaith panel will respond to: How does your faith tradition deal with the relationship of religion and American Politics today?

A Question & Answer Session
Follows the Presentations

Please note: The forum will not touch on current elections, candidates or political parties. The forum is set to examine how each faith group views politics within the teachings of their respective faiths. Historically, in the United States, how has religion affected politics and how has politics affected religion?

Contact Irene Randall, irandall@interfaithpartnership.org or 314-531-4787.

Voluntary Donation Suggested - $5.00/person